Notes from the boss.....

If this afternoon's game matches the standards set in our two meetings at Turf Moor in November, the fans are in for a real treat. The two matches, our victory in the FA Cup one week and then Burnley's success in the league the following week, were extremely exciting and eneterntaining encounters and a credit to the two teams.

I would, therefore, like to extend an extra special warm Burnden Park welcome to the Burnley contingent, including our old friend George Oghani who has been doing well in the goalscoring business recently.

How things have changed over at Turf Moor since the problems they had a year ago.

Burnley almost dropped out of the League in what would have been the most tragic of circumstances. But this season has been an altogether different experience for them. I have visited Turf Moor on a number of occasions and I have noticed how their fans have really got behind the players and created the impetus that has put them up with us among the front runners.

Since these notes were written in advance of the Easter Holiday programme, I can only say that in our respective opponents, Orient and Wolves, we both had tough matches in prospect on Saturday matches, like this afternoon's, which have a great bearing on the top of the table scene.

Despite recent indifferent results which have affected our own situation, I am looking forward to the remaining games with considerable optimism, knowing that we are well on the way to having a fully-fit squad.

Dean Crombie and Steve Elliot are leading the way and last week had their first competitive matches since their respective ankle operations. Hopefully they will be pushing for first team places from now on. And Jeff Chandler, who we have missed since he was injured in only the fourth match of the season, was due a run-out in the 'A' team at Preston today. I'm sure everyone will be delighted to see Jeff back in the groove as soon as possible.

If everything goes to plan, Andy May will be playing his first full home game this afternoon, so I would ask you all to give him an extra special and extra warm welcome to Burnden Park. Most of you will have seen him get a short spell as substitute in the Rochdale game but today he should be on the field from the start.

There is a need now for the fans to provide us with the imetus we need to strengthen our promotion position. We have shown all year that we care good enough to be in the top six. Now we must keep the pot boiling and, as I have said before, the supporters can play such an important part. The players want to win promotion ever so badly, so let's do everything we can to help. Let's not get over anxious if things don't go well for a spell. That anxiety can get to the players and affect them.

The support has been brilliant here at Burnden this season and even when things haven't gone so well the frustration they have shown has been understandable.

But now is the time to encourage the players even more than ever—especially after we have all come so far.

BURNLEY

Burnley, who suffered a last-gasp survival in Division Four, can look back to a tragic mistake in policy for their dramatic decline. Abandoning their famous youth policy at Turf Moor has backfired disastrously. The club signed on older, experienced players hoping for instant success. Instead, Burnley plunged from glory days to the depths of the Fourth Division.

When Burnley dropped out of the Fourth Division only eleven years ago, they had spent just two of the previous 29 seasons out of the top division. But the Lancashire textile town club got rid of its best youngsters and paid the price. In came the likes of Steve Daley, Kevin Reeves, Malcolm Waldron and Joe Gallagher. The crowds dipped to under 3,000 and the incredible prospect of dropping out of the Football League became a distinct reality.

No-nonsense Brian Miller has been largely responsible for Burnley's survival. He was also in charge of the club before the controversial John Bond moved in with his big signings. Miller believes that had Everton-bound Trevor Stevens been replaced and a quality striker signed, Burnley could have won their way back into the Second Division.

Loyal Burnley fans who turned out in their thousands to cheer the side on in their dramatic final home game, remember when the club was one of the most respected in the land. Among the top-class players who brought honours to the town was Brian Miller.

Miller is once again putting his belief in young talent.

VISITORS PEN FILE

CHRIS PEARCE—Goalkeeper. Made his Burnley debut during the 1987-88 series of Lancashire Manx Cup matches against Blackpool, Blackburn Rovers, and Bolton. Started his career as an apprentice with Wolves, has also had spells with Blackburn, Rochdale and Port Vale. Signed by Brian Miller from Wrexham.

PETER LEEBROOK—Young right-back from Leicestershire, who won his first team place during the 1986-87 campaign when Burnley were in a desperate fight for survival. Some outstanding performances in the Burnley youth team helped win him promotion and he took his senior chance extremely well.

RAY DEAKIN—Liverpool born Burnley club captain. Began with Everton, later played for Port Vale and Bolton Wanderers before his move to Turf Moor under Martin Buchan's management. Played a key role in the great escape of 1986-87 and although he has played at left-back, most of his Burnley appearances have been in the middle of defence.

STEVE GARDNER—Joined Burnley just before the start of the 1987-88 campaign after playing for Manchester United, mostly in their Central League team. Made a very promising Burnley debut during the Lancashire Manx Cup in the centre of defence alongside skipper Ray Deakin.

PAUL CONSTIVE—Mobile and forceful midfield player signed by Brian Miller during the Summer of 1987, after more than two years with Wrexham. Joined Burnley at the same time as Wrexham team mate Chris Pearce and the fees were decided by tribunal. Paul comes from Southport, and his previous Clubs also include Blackburn, Rochdale (loan) and Wigan Athletic.

IAN BRITTON—Scottish-born midfield player who made his name with Chelsea and also played for Blackpool. Brian Miller signed him from Blackpool during the early part of the 1986-87 season and he scored the goal against Orient which kept Burnley in the Football League. Although mainly a midfield player he has also played up front for the Clarets.

ANDY FARRELL—Signed by Brian Miller just before the start of the 1987-88 season. A midfield player from his local Club, Colchester United. Miller first saw him in action against Burnley last season at Turf Moor and followed up the signing from there.

ASHLEY HOSKIN—Winger from Accrington, Lancs. Came up through the junior ranks at Burnley, the Club he has always supported. Now well recovered from a leg fracture he can be a tricky customer for opponents as he proved at Swansea last season, scoring a brilliant goal after beating no fewer than five players.

GEORGE OGHANI—Yet another Brian Miller signing during the Summer of 1987. Started his career with Hyde United, then moved into the Football League with Bolton. He scored for Burnley against Bolton in the Lancashire Manx Cup 1987, and the Clarets are hoping he will get many more for them.

STEVE TAYLOR—Forward. Began his career with Bolton Wanderers and has played more than 400 League games in a much-travelled career. This is his second spell at Burnley after scoring 37 goals in 87 appearances for them in his first spell. Steve was Division Four's joint leading scorer with Richard Cadette (Southend) when he hit 25 for Rochdale in season 1985-86.

STEVE DAVIS—Central Defender. Signed for Clarets for a fee of £15,000 on 25th November 1987 during the second month of a loan spell from Crewe Alexandra. A former captain of Crewe for whom he played 140 League games. Has played for the England Youth Team in a tournament in Yugoslavia.

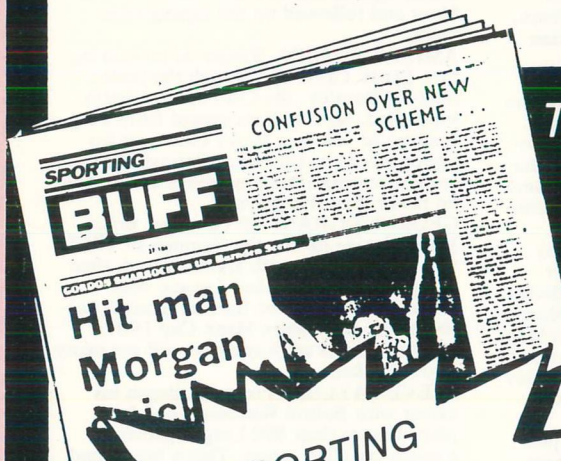

SHAUN McGRORY—Left-back who was amongst a host of signings by Brian Miller during the summer of 1987. Shaun was previously with Coventry City and played regularly for their reserve team before his move to Turf Moor. Looked a very useful left-back during the Lancashire Manx Cup games in which he played.

MATCH REPORT

AROUND THE LEAGUES

By way of a change let's start by saluting our locals Horwich R.M.I. who enjoyed their hour of glory by defeating Enfield 3-1 in the semi-final of the GMAC trophy at Grundy Hill. Good Luck to them in the Final against the winners of Morecambe V Weymouth.

Back to the 'big time' and it didn't take Liverpool long to get back to winning ways, this time Wimbledon met their fate at Anfield 2-1.

Alex Ferguson's recent talking wasn't in vein as his boys ran out 3-1 winners over West. Ham at Old Trafford. Everton dumped Watford even further in the danger zone, leaving Vicarage Road with maximum points. Meanwhile, Arsenal grabbed a point at Derby whilst Notts. Forest also had to share the spoils at Spurs.

In Div. 2 surprise result of the day was at Villa Park where visitors Stoke beat the leaders 1-0. Neighbours Blackburn, who had just signed Argentinian Ossie Ardiles on loan before the transfer deadline, travelled south to Plymouth and suffered a surprising 3-0 defeat. Man. City went to Barnsley's Oakwell but lost their way in a 3-1 defeat and Oldham had to settle 2-2 with unpredictable Shrewsbury.

In Div. 3 promotion rivals Sunderland and Notts. County both suffered surprise defeats. The Wearsiders went down at bottom placed York and County 1-0 at home to Gillingham. In the Lancashire 'hot pot' Preston defeated Bury by a single Alex Jones goal.

Ground conditions forced today's visitors' game against Torquay to be called off at Turf Moor, Leighton James was sent on a spying mission to Burnden obviously with today's game in mind, but on the day there was little for him to report in our scoreless draw with Rochdale. Dale's keeper Keith Welch, who had featured in our 'Guest Spot' earlier in the season and promised us that he was looking forward to playing in front of his home town spectators and lived up to his word, saving Dale on several occasions. Promotion rivals Leyton Orient got a confidence booster in beating Swansea 3-0 in readiness for our own visit last Saturday.

Wolves V Darlington recorded the highest goals aggregate of the day at Molyneux, with the leaders running out 5-3 winners. Ex-Wanderer Wayne Entwistle scored the lone goal for Asa Hartford's Stockport away at Hereford. Close promotion rivals Scunthorpe took maximum points off highly placed Cardiff at Nunian Park but at the other end of the table, Newport must now need a miracle to happen to secure their Barclays League future; Welsh neighbours Wrexham showed no mercy in a 4-1 defeat.

TOMMY BANKS

B.W.F.C. (1946–61) & ENGLAND

This week's guest was a real footballing character whose name crops up at many a Sportsman's Dinner. He played 15 seasons First Division football after being recruited from Bolton Boys Federation team Partridges. "I could have had the pick of many Clubs, including United and Wolves."

On being demobbed from the army in 1953 he went straight into Bolton's first team at Cardiff and pulled a muscle which ruled him out of the Semi-Final against Everton at Maine Road. Bolton of course reached Wembley and Tommy recalled, "Our Ralph played in the Final but I think they'd have won if I'd played because I was a bit of a rabbit for Matthews."

Tommy discarded it as a fallacy that Matthews was easy. "I played against him many times, the first time I was only 18 and we lost 3-0 at Blackpool but I had a fair game against him. His trick was going down the wing and I had a good left foot but he was quick you know." Tom was reputed for giving wingers the Burnden gravel rash. "Oh aye, I used to put 'um in the gravel. I remember catching Matthews only once and little Ernie Taylor breasted up to me. I said, 'Ernie, I think tha's come to the wrong chap haven't you?'"

But Tommy rated Preston legend Tom Finney as the best. "He could go either way, strong and good in the air."

After winning the Cup in '58, Walter Winterbottom fancied Tommy's prospects as England's No.3 and covered the Arsenal-Bolton game at Highbury but Banksy admits, "I met up against my rabbit there, a lad called Danny Clapton. He could catch pigeons that mon, a straight runner yet he didn't like playing against me."

Hartle and Banks became household names. He said, "We were frightened of nobody. Ray couldn't tackle so he'd kick 'em. All the team liked winning and loved training sessions. Even in 5 a sides we had some reet ding dong do's—we were lucky to be fit at weekend. But we used to have a bit of fun as well."

Tommy gained six England caps and swears that had he played for a London club he'd be humpbacked with caps. He played against Russia twice and recalled "I had a reet do with that lot. They kicked Finney out of the game but I sorted one or two out during the match. They had a brilliant winger called Aputkin and he was frettened to death of me. They couldn't understand me but I made 'em understand."

There are many tales to tell about Banksy but now he runs his own newsagency in Farnworth where he's been for 6 years.

FLASH BACK

5 YEARS AGO. 5th April, 1983.

The Wanderers crashed to a 5-0 defeat at fellow relegation strugglers Carlisle United. Bryan 'Pop' Robson started the rout with his 258th League goal after only three minutes play. Paul Bannon and Alan Shoulder netted further goals for the home side before the interval. Bolton enjoyed a brief period of possession at the start of the second half when Stuart Gray was thwarted by Trevor Swinburne and both Simon Rudge and Jeff Chandler went close. Robson netted the fourth eleven minutes from time and Tommy Craig completed the rout in the final minute.

9th April, 1983. F.A. Cup semi-finalists Sheffield Wednesday took the points from Burnden Park with a 2-0 win although they had a price to pay. The Yorkshire side lost full back Ian Bailey, who had two loan spells with the Wanderers, with a broken leg. Gary Megson and Gary Bannister netted the first half goals that registered Bolton's fifth consecutive defeat.

10 YEARS AGO. 1st April, 1978.

A thirty yard piledriver from Sam Allardyce gave the Wanderers an early advantage in their clash with F.A. Cup semi-finalists Orient at Burnden. He hit the target after eight minutes but two splendid saves by 'keeper John Jackson from Worthington and Whatmore kept the Londoners in the game. In the fourth minute of injury time Neil Whatmore wrapped up the points with his 19th goal of the season. Peter Reid was a member of the England team that qualified for the semi-finals of the European under 21 championship with a 0-0 draw against Italy in Rome thus winning 2-1 on aggregate.

8th April, 1978. Ex Wanderer Don McAllister netted the only goal of the game for Tottenham as the Second Division's top two sides met at White Hart Lane before a 50097 crowd.

15 YEARS AGO. 31st March, 1973.

The Wanderers retained top spot in the Third Division despite going down 1-0 at Rotherham United. The winner came in the 34th minute from Ron Wigg.

4th April, 1973. Bolton returned with both points from an exciting 3-2 win at Swansea, thanks to two goals from Neil Whatmore who was making his League debut. Geoff Thomas had given the Swans a 22nd minute lead from the penalty spot before Whatmore equalised in the 38th minute with a header. John Byrom put Bolton in front in the 42nd minute and Whatmore increased the lead a minute later. Jimmy McLaughlin pulled one back for the home side late in the game.

7th April, 1973. Watford snatched a point from a 1-1 draw with the Wanderers at Burnden. Both goals came in a three minute spell. Billy Jennings giving Watford the lead in the 69th minute, Stuart Lee converting a penalty after he had been brought down by Colin Franks.

When somebody said 'Football was a funny old game' that hit the nail right on the head because who would have imagined two such famous teams meeting in a Division Four fixture. If you would have had a crystal ball ten years ago and predicted such a thing happening, nobody would have believed you, likewise if you would have predicted newcomers Wimbledon being a successful First Division outfit and only one step away from Wembley, you would probably have opened up as Gipsy Rosi Lea on Blackpool Pier.

The Burnley supporters who are here today will no doubt remember the day when non-league Wimbledon came to the then mighty Burnley and beat them in the F.A.Cup. After last year's close shave, this season has seen the Claret's making a determined effort for promotion with former Burnden players Ray Deakin and George Oghani staring down at Turf Moor. Having already met twice this season, the players will know each others strengths and let's hope we get a 'classic' for what will surely be the highest gate of the season here at Burnden.

It's now only a couple of weeks away from the Mercantile Credit Football League Centenary Festival down at Wembley, in what promises to be a weekend of fun and thrills. With the Football League authorising fixtures to be suspended that Saturday it leaves us supporters whose club's aren't at Wembley with a free Saturday. 'Yuppee' I hear you cry, no kicking the dog at five o'clock when you arrive in after the match, but beware, because the wife (if she finds out there's no football) could well have you fixing that cupboard shelf you promised to do last season.

BURNDEN SPORTING INITIATIVE SPORTS CENTRE READEY'S 7-A-SIDE KNOCKOUT TOURNAMENT

Played on Thursday, 25th March, 1988.

Both semi finals required penalty shoot outs — "SUDDEN DEATH"

In the first semi final Bolton Wanderers Commercial Department had the better chances against Little Lever but failed to take them with 0-0 at full time. The game was decided by sudden death penalties. Andrew Eddleston volunteered to take B.W.F.C. first penalty and his shot was well saved. All seemed lost when Roy Greaves (B.W.F.C. star of yesteryear) stepped up to take Little Levers. Roy struck the ball well but keeper John Hinsley made a fine save. Both teams scored their next three penalties. Marcus Brown was the unfortunate player to miss. Little Levers Ray Cload kept his cool to put his team into the final 4-3 on penalties.

In the second semi final, Tonge Crickets surprised Morris Green with a Dave Roscoe goal in the first 30 seconds. Both teams had several chances to add to the score in flowing end to end football, with just over a minute to go and a place in the final awaiting Tonge Crickets, Morris Green's Martin McGuinnes capitalized on Tonge Crickets defences moment of madness to level the scores and send the game into sudden death penalties. Both team scorings with their first attempts. Tonge Crickets Clinton Smith, spot kick was well saved. Dave Holden gave the Tonge keeper no chance and put a some what relieved Morris Green into the final.

Tonge Crickets 2 Morris Green 3 (On penalties)

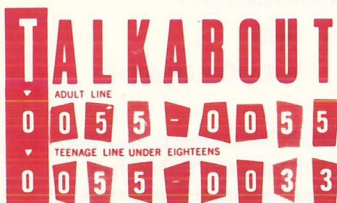

In the final, both champions of their respective league, produced some fine flowing football. Once Gary Hopkins netted for Morris Green they gained in confidence and took command of the game. Little Lever never gave up the chase and only some fine goal keeping by John Crompton kept them scoreless. A second goal by Fitzroy Barnes mid way through the second half, put the seal on a fine sporting game.

Centre Manager Mr. G.W. Longden (Bill) would like to thank all who took part in the Readey's Tournament.

A special thanks to Mr. B. Haslam, Mr. F. Holmes and Max Carter who organized the Inter League Game teams.

NOTEBOOK

REFLECTIONS

Our near neighbours Burnley visit Burnden Park today for what will be the 104th Football League game between the clubs. To date Burnley have the edge having won 42 of these games to the Wanderers 35.

The first League game between two of the original founder members took place at Pikes Lane in September 1888 when Burnley won 4-3 after the Wanderers had held a 3-1 advantage. The following season Burnley put seven past the Wanderers without reply thus setting up Bolton's worst ever League reverse that has only been equalled on two occasions at Sheffield Wednesday and Manchester City.

Bolton gained revenge with a 7-1 win at Burnden in 1927 and with a 7-0 win in January 1935.

In recent times Burnley have fared slightly better winning four to the Wanderers two of the last eleven League encounters.

The last time that the points were taken from the Clarets was in January 1983 at Burnden when Bolton scored a 3-0 success. First half goals came from Tony Henry and David Hoggan but the game is best remembered for the goal that came in the 79th minute from a long clearance by 'keeper Jim McDonagh.

That game took place in the second division and the following season both sides played out draws in the first ever meetings at third division level. Season 1984-85 saw Burnley complete the double but despite this they were relegated to the fourth division.

Earlier this season the Wanderers went down 2-1 at Turf Moor a week after winning 1-0 in the first round of the F.A. Cup at the same venue. A John Thomas penalty won the cup tie for Bolton and he was again on the mark in the League game but Ian Britton and David Reeves struck for Burnley.

GOLDEN OLDIES

5th November, 1927.

Bolton Wanderers .. 7 Burnley .. 1

Both clubs were in the lower half of the First Division and it was fate that a crowd of 12,225 were to witness a Wanderers goal storm.

Harold Blackmore netted Bolton's first goal early on but Burnley lost their keeper Somerville with a broken collar bone in the incident. Centre half, Hill, went in the goals as there were no substitutes in those days.

Late in the half, Blackmore netted two more goals in the space of four minutes, thus recording his first hat trick for the Wanderers.

At half time Burnley placed Freeman between the sticks allowing Hill to return to his defensive duties. Unfortunately, in the Wanderers first attack of the half, Hill handled and Blackmore struck home his and Bolton's fourth.

David Jack then took over the goalscoring role netting a hat trick of headers and to make things even worse for the visitors the electric lights failed after the game leaving the players to bath by candlelight!
